

LITERATURE REPORT

What is New or Coming

The new Alateen bookmark, 'Just for Tonight,' is available at the AAIS bookstore in Murray.

The new daily reader, 'A Little Time for Myself, introduced at the Albuquerque International Convention, is currently out of stock at WSO. When it's available (Guy K checks regularly) two cases will be ordered.

WSO is working on a new pamphlet on Sponsorship! Tom C, the WSO Associate Director Literature, desires to receive sharing on that topic or anything else. Sharings are kept by WSO and may be used anytime (months or even years) after submitting. It would be wonderful to have Tom visit a future Assembly; however, traveling costs may be prohibitive... He is going to the New York South Area, and we have been invited to ZOOM in on Monday, November 13. Further details are on the flyer and Utah Area website.

LITERATURE WORKSHOP

The Forum Writing Guideline (F-1) copies were distributed to everyone in attendance. As it says, EVERYONE has something to share about Al-Anon. Please notice that the Guideline may be photocopied as needed. It can be used for a change of pace in an AFG meeting, District meeting or even by a sponsor to encourage their sponsee to learn the many benefits of writing! Sharings can be short or a bit longer (100-400 words). Some of us are natural writers, while others take a little more effort.

As an example, in a recent conversation with a dear Al-Anon friend, I was commenting (maybe complaining) about how many projects I have going on currently. Her comment back was, '...enjoy the journey' which is exactly what I needed to hear.

Can't find a topic to write about - the new daily reader ends each page with a thought-provoking question. Every Al-Anon book is indexed to spur your imagination. ALL sharings are welcome.

One last thing, the Fall Fellowship Weekend is being revived for 2024. It will be in cooperation with AA and have Alateen participation! Coleen S is spearheading this effort and wants as many volunteers as possible. Watch for further details soon.

Nancy W.